ARTICLE II. ADMINISTRATION OF CHAPTER

SEC. 3-5. ANIMAL CONTROL OFFICERS.

The City Manager is responsible for the administration of this chapter. Reasonable rules and regulations shall be prescribed by the Commission to carry out the intent and purpose of this chapter, pursuant to standards created by this chapter. ~~street for any amount of time that would endanger, or create an adverse condition placing at risk the health or well-being of such animal due to temperature, lack of food or potable water or such other conditions as may be reasonably expected that may cause suffering, disability or death. Any animal control or law enforcement officer observing an animal kept in violation of this section may take emergency measures, as defined by the definitions of this article and impound the animal. In addition to all other defenses and immunities provided by law, any such officer taking emergency measures for the purpose of this section shall be immune from suit or liability, criminal or civil, caused by or arising from the emergency measures taken.~~

(d) ~~Care and maintenance. It is unlawful for any person to fail, refuse, or neglect to provide any animal in his charge or custody, as owner or otherwise, with:~~

- ~~(1) Adequate food.~~
- ~~(2) Adequate water.~~
- ~~(3) Adequate shelter.~~
- ~~(4) Adequate shade.~~
- ~~(5) Adequate space.~~

(e) ~~[Unattended animals.] No animal shall be left unattended for more than 24 hours.~~

(f) ~~[Grooming.] No owner or responsible party shall fail to provide necessary grooming of the coat in order to prevent matting, skin irritation, distress or pain, trapping of fecal matter, and loss of the ability to protect the animal from adverse weather conditions. An animal shall not be so dirty that it becomes matted as to provide a home for parasites and insects. No animal shall be allowed to have a foreign object embedded in its hide, fur or skin other than a microchip or a medical device implanted by a licensed veterinarian.~~

(g) ~~Veterinary care. It is unlawful for a person to have, keep or harbor an animal which is seriously sick or injured, including suffering from starvation, or severe thirst without providing proper veterinary care. An animal shall be afforded immediate veterinary care if it is known or suspected to be ill or injured. No person shall perform procedures such as ear cropping, de-barking, tail docking on an animal, or otherwise endanger an animal's well-being. Procedures completed by a licensed veterinarian in accordance to their standard practices shall not be considered cruelty.~~

(h) — Abandonment. It shall be unlawful for any person being the owner/responsible party of a dog, cat, or other domesticated animal or pet to abandon such animal. Abandonment includes dumping of an animal from a moving or stationary motor vehicle. This section shall not apply to voluntary relinquishments to an animal rescue organization, animal control center, animal control officer, licensed veterinarian, or another person.

(i) — Poisoning. Intentionally or knowingly poison or attempts to poison any domestic animal. For purposes of this section, "poison" or "attempt to poison" includes the act of placing food, water, or lure of another sort which contains poison or contains health threatening foreign objects, such as glass or metal, in a location where any animal may be attracted.

(j) — Uncared for animals. Whenever the animal control officer, Code Enforcement Officer, or designated representative finds that any animal is or will be without proper care because of injury, illness, incarceration, or other involuntary absence of the owner or responsible party for the care of such animal, the Animal Control Officer shall make arrangements for the care of the animal.

(k) — Injury by motorists. Every operator of a motor or other self-propelled vehicle upon the streets and ways of the City shall immediately, upon injuring, striking, maiming, or running down any animal, give such aid as is reasonably able to be rendered. ~~In the absence of the owner, he/she shall immediately notify the Police, furnishing sufficient facts relative to such injury. It is the duty of such operator to remain at or near the scene until such time as the appropriate authorities arrive and, upon the arrival of such person, such operator shall immediately identify themselves to the appropriate authorities.~~ Alternatively, in the absence of the owner, a person may give aid by taking the animal to a veterinary hospital or the Animal Shelter and notifying the Police. Such animal shall be deemed an uncared for animal within the meaning of subsection (j) of this section. Emergency vehicles are excluded from this provision.

(l) — Hobbling livestock. It is unlawful for any person to hobble livestock or other animals by any means which may cause injury or damage to any animal.

(m) — Keeping of diseased animals. It is unlawful for any person to have, keep, or harbor any animal which is infected with any dangerous disease. The Animal Control Officer may impound such diseased animal in accordance with the provisions of this article. All such animals impounded may be destroyed humanely as soon as is conveniently possible. In the case of destruction of such animal, the Animal Control Officer or designee shall not be required to give any of the notices provided in this article. This section shall not be construed to include veterinary hospitals or animals under active veterinary care.

(n) — Fights. It is unlawful for any person to promote, stage, hold, manage, conduct, carry on, or attend any game, exhibition, contest, fight, or combat between one or more animals or between animals and humans in which one or more animals are engaged for the purpose of injuring, killing, maiming, or destroying themselves or any other animal. ~~This includes any animal used as a "bait animal" as defined in the definitions of this Chapter.~~

(o) — Fowl; impounding; crating. It is unlawful for any person to confine any wild or domestic fowl or birds unless provisions are made by each person for the proper feeding and the furnishing of water to such fowl or birds at intervals not longer than 12 hours. No person shall impound any wild or domestic fowl or birds in a crate, box or other enclosure, which does not permit each fowl or bird impounded therein to stand in a naturally erect position.

(p) — Tormenting. It shall be unlawful for any person to willfully torment any and all animals by any means, such as throwing rocks, yelling or giving chase in any manner. No person shall purposely cause a dog to bark unnecessarily or annoy such animal to the point the animal will attempt to attack a person or other animal.

(q) — Songbirds, killing and robbing of nest prohibited. ~~It is unlawful for any person to willfully kill any songbird, or to molest or rob the nest of such bird.~~

(h) — ~~Fines for violations of this article shall be in accordance with the provisions of section 1-10.~~

~~(Ord. No. 725, 2-9-22)~~

~~SEC. 3-31. RESTRAINT OF ANIMALS.~~

(a) — ~~Physical restraint. A person owning or having charge, custody, or care over an animal shall keep the animal under humane physical restraint at all times.~~

(b) — ~~Dragging; hobbling. A person shall not hobble an animal, or tether or attach any animal to any object that can be dragged or moved by the animal. Such an animal, if not otherwise restrained by immediate control or enclosure, shall be considered by the animal control officer to be unrestrained. This shall not apply to livestock animals being properly used for work purposes.~~

(c) — ~~Owner's premises. A person owning or having care, custody, or control over an animal on his or her premises shall restrain the animal either by a secure enclosure or by immediate control.~~

~~1) (1) — All pens, kennels, stalls, corrals, or other enclosures used to restrain an animal shall be continuously maintained with preservatives, fasteners, and other materials to prevent deterioration and animal escape. Substantial and acceptable locking or latching devices shall be installed on all gates and doors to animal enclosures in such a manner as to be inaccessible to animals and small children in order to prevent animal escape and unauthorized entry.~~

(2) — ~~A person owning or having care, custody, or control over an animal on his or her premises may use a tether as a means of restraint only if:~~

~~i. a. — The tethered animal has access to adequate food, water, shade and shelter.~~

~~ii.i. b. A tether used to restrain a dog shall be at least 12 feet in length. Such tether shall not enable the animal to reach beyond the owner's property.~~

~~iii.i. c. A tether used to restrain an animal shall be affixed to a properly fitting collar or harness worn by the animal. A person shall not wrap a chain or tether directly around the neck or other body part of the animal.~~

~~iv.i. d. A tether used to restrain an animal shall be fastened so that the animal may sit, walk, and lie down using natural motions. Such tether shall be unobstructed by objects that may cause the tether or animal to become entangled, strangled or denied access to adequate necessities.~~

~~2)1) (3) Voice commands are not an acceptable form of restraint.~~

(d) — Public premises. A person owning or having care, custody, or control over an animal off of his or her premises shall keep the animal under immediate control.

(1) — ~~While restrained off premises under the immediate control of the owner or responsible party, the animal must be on a leash that shall enable the handler to maintain control of the animal. The leash shall not exceed six feet in length while the animal is in and around the inhabitants of the city.~~

(2) — ~~A person shall not carry an animal in or upon any vehicle in a cruel, inhumane, or unsafe manner. Animals carried in the open flatbed vehicle shall be crated or restrained upon a non-slick surface and in a manner that prevents the animal from falling out of the vehicle. At no time is an animal allowed to sit or stand in the drivers lap while the vehicle is being operated on any public roadway.~~

~~3)1) (3) A person in charge of an amphibian or reptile away from the owner's premises shall keep the animal secured within a closed container that will not expose people unexpectedly to the animal.~~

(4) — Voice commands are not an acceptable form of restraint.

(e) — Property of others. A person owning or having care, custody, or control over an animal shall not detain or restrain an animal upon another person's private property without having permission from the resident or owner of such property.

~~4)1) (1) If the resident or owner does not permit the animal being detained or restrained upon such property, the animal may be taken up and impounded by the Animal Control Officer at the request of the resident or owner.~~

(2) — ~~If the owner of a rented or leased property does not approve of an animal being restrained or detained by the resident on such property, the dispute shall be regarded by the animal control officer as a civil matter.~~

(f) ~~Multiple dwelling unit. An owner, manager, agent, or governing board of any multiple dwelling unit, including mobile home parks and gated communities, shall not permit or authorize any animal to be unrestrained upon the common areas of the multiple dwelling unit, except upon such areas and within such enclosures specifically designated for such activity.~~

(g) ~~Exceptions:~~

(1) ~~A working dog that is under the control and supervision of the owner or handler performing such acts as herding, search and rescue, or police work shall not be considered as unrestrained while performing or being trained for such duties.~~

(2) ~~A hunting, tracking, or show dog that is under the control and supervision of the owner or handler shall not be considered as unrestrained while performing in or being trained for those capacities.~~

~~Each animal cited as a violation under this section is considered a separate offense. Upon a second conviction of an offense under this section, an offender may be sentenced to imprisonment of up to 90 days at the discretion of the court. The offender shall be fined a minimum of $100.00 per offense. Upon a third or subsequent conviction of an offense under this section, an offender may be sentenced to imprisonment of up to 90 days at the discretion of the court. The offender shall be fined a minimum $250.00 per offense. The fine penalties imposed pursuant to this paragraph shall not be suspended or deferred or taken under advisement by the court.~~

~~SEC. 3-33. SEIZURE OF ANIMALS NOTICE.~~

- A. (a) — An Animal Control Officer, or designee who reasonably believes that the life or health of an animal to include Livestock is endangered due to cruel treatment may apply to ~~the municipal~~ a court of proper jurisdiction in the ~~city~~ county where the animal is located for a warrant to seize the animal.
- B. (b) — If the court finds probable cause that the animal is being cruelly treated, the court shall issue a warrant for the seizure of the animal. The court shall also schedule a hearing on the matter as expeditiously as possible within ten business days unless good cause is demonstrated by the city for a later time and such extension is approved by ~~the municipal court judge~~ a judge with proper jurisdiction to enforce this Chapter.

- C. ~~(e)~~—Written notice regarding the time and location of the hearing shall be provided to the owner of the seized animal. The court may order publication of a notice of the hearing in a newspaper closest to the location of the seizure.
- D. ~~(d)~~—If the owner of the animal cannot be determined or cannot be located, a written notice regarding the circumstances of the seizure shall be conspicuously posted where the animal is seized at the time the seizure occurs.
- E. ~~(e)~~—At the option and expense of the owner, the seized animal may be examined by a veterinarian of the owner's choice if approved by ~~the municipal court judge~~ a judge with proper jurisdiction to enforce this Chapter.
- F. ~~(f)~~—If the animal is a type of Livestock, seizure shall be pursuant to Chapter 77, Article 18 NMSA 1978.

SEC. 3-34-11. DISPOSITION OF SEIZED ANIMALS.

- A. ~~(a)~~—If the court finds that a seized animal is not being cruelly treated and that the animal's owner is able to provide for the animal adequately, the court ~~shall~~ may order the return of the animal to its owner.
- B. ~~(b)~~—If the court finds that a seized animal is being cruelly treated or that the animal's owner is unable to provide for the animal adequately, the court ~~shall hold a hearing to determine the disposition of~~ may order the animal be relinquished to the Animal Shelter or other facility.
- C. ~~(c)~~—An animal control agency operated by the municipality, or an Animal Shelter or other animal welfare organization designated by an animal control agency or an Animal Shelter, in the custody of which an animal that has been cruelly treated has been placed may petition the court to request that the animal's owner may be ordered to post security with the court to indemnify the costs incurred to care and provide for the seized animal pending the disposition of any criminal charges of committing cruelty to animals pending against the animal's owner.
- D. ~~(d)~~—The court shall determine the amount of security while taking into consideration all of the circumstances of the case including the owner's ability to pay and may conduct periodic reviews of its order. If the posting of security is ordered, the animal control agency, Animal Shelter or animal welfare organization may, with permission of the court, draw from the security to indemnify the costs incurred to care and provide for the seized animal pending disposition of the criminal charges.

E. ~~(e)~~—If the owner of the animal does not post security within ~~15~~13 days after the issuance of the order, or if, after reasonable and diligent attempts the owner cannot be located, the animal may be deemed abandoned and relinquished to the animal control agency, Animal Shelter or animal welfare organization for adoption, transfer out or humane destruction.

F. ~~(f)~~—Nothing in this section shall prohibit an owner from voluntarily relinquishing an animal to an animal control agency or shelter in lieu of posting security. A voluntary relinquishment shall not preclude further prosecution of any criminal charges alleging that the owner has committed cruelty to animals.

~~(g) — Upon conviction, the court shall place the animal with an animal shelter or animal welfare organization for placement or for humane destruction.~~

G. ~~(h)~~—As used in this section, "Livestock" means ~~all domestic or domesticated animals that are used or raised on a farm or ranch and exotic animals in captivity and includes~~any of the large or small Livestock, including, but not limited to horses, asses, mules, cattle, mules, donkeys, burros, swine, goats, sheep, ~~goats, swine, bison, poultry, ostriches, emus, rheas, camelids and farmed Cervidae~~ but does not include canine or feline animalsand fowl, including, but not limited to, chickens, guinea hens, ducks, turkeys, geese, quail, or pigeons or any other Domestic Animals typically used in the production of food, fiber, or other products or activities defined by the city manager as agricultural.

 - 4) Electronic Leashes are not an acceptable form of restraint.
 - 5) Invisible fences are not an acceptable form of restraint.
 - 6) Crates are prohibited as a means of restraint while an animal is outdoors and on the premises of an owner or custodian.
- C. A person owning or having care, custody, or control over a Domestic Animal or Livestock off of his or her premises shall keep the animal under immediate control.
- 1) While restrained off premises under the immediate control of the owner or responsible party, the animal must be on a leash that shall enable the handler to maintain control of the animal. The leash shall not exceed eight (8) feet in length while the animal is in and around the inhabitants of the city.
 - 2) A person shall not carry an animal in or upon any vehicle in a cruel, inhumane, or unsafe manner or in any manner that will allow their escape from the vehicle when it is parked or in motion. Animals carried in the open flatbed vehicle shall be crated or restrained upon a non-slick surface and in a manner that prevents the animal from falling out of the vehicle. At no time is an animal allowed to sit or stand in the driver's lap while the vehicle is being operated on any public roadway.
 - i. If an animal is restrained in a crate or other enclosure while in a vehicle, the crate or enclosure shall be securely fastened so that the crate or enclosure cannot slide, turn over or fall out.
 - 3) A person in charge of an amphibian or reptile away from the owner's premises shall keep the animal secured within a closed container that will not expose people unexpectedly to the animal.
 - 4) Voice commands are not an acceptable form of restraint.
 - 5) Electronic Leashes are not an acceptable form of restraint.
- D. A person owning or having care, custody, or control over a Domestic Animal or Livestock shall not detain or restrain an animal upon another person's private property without having permission from the resident or owner of such property.
- 1) If the resident or owner does not permit the animal being detained or restrained upon such property, the animal may be taken up and impounded by the Animal Control Officer at the request of the resident or owner.

- 2) If the owner of a rented or leased property does not approve of an animal being restrained or detained by the resident on such property, the dispute may be regarded by the Animal Control Officer as a private matter.
- E. An owner, manager, agent, or governing board of any multiple dwelling units, including mobile home parks and gated communities, may permit or authorize any animal to be unrestrained upon the common areas of the multiple dwelling units, except upon such areas and within such enclosures specifically designated for such activity, provided the animal is restrained within the bounds of the park or community by a secure fence.
- F. Exceptions:

SEC. 3-73. FEMALE DOGS OR CATS IN ESTRUS TO BE CONFINED.

It shall be unlawful for any owner/responsible party to fail to securely confine any un-spayed Companion Animal in the state of estrus (heat), in a house, building or proper enclosure, in such a manner that such animal cannot come in contact with another animal except for planned breeding, and such that the Companion Animal does not create a nuisance by attracting other animals. When outside on the property of the owner, for metabolic waste elimination, the animal must be physically restrained with a hand-held leash. Owners/responsible party who do not comply may be ordered to remove the animals in estrus (heat) to a boarding kennel, veterinary hospital or Animal Shelter. All expenses incurred as a result of the confinement shall be paid by the owner/responsible party of the animal. Failure to comply with the removal order shall be a violation of this Section and the animal shall then be impounded as prescribed in this Chapter.

DIVISION 3. LICENSING

SEC. 3-71. LICENSE REQUIRED.

~~(a) — Any person owning, possessing or harboring any dog or cat three months of age or over shall obtain a license for each animal. Application for such license shall be made as directed and shall state the name and address of the owner, the name, breed, color, age and sex of such animal and any other information deemed necessary. A current rabies vaccination certificate shall be presented at the time of application for the license. Upon payment of the license fee, as prescribed in subsection (d) of this section, a license certificate and tag for each animal shall be~~ issued. If the tag is lost, replacement tags with a cost set by resolution shall be purchased. The license shall expire on the same date as the rabies certificate or one year whichever is greater.

(b) — A current license tag shall be affixed to the licensed dog or cat at all times in a reasonable manner, unless the licensed dog or cat is being kept in an approved kennel, veterinary hospital, is appearing in an approved show, or is being trained. Provided that the person that is training the dog shall have in his personal possession the valid license tag for each dog or cat and shall immediately display such upon request of the Animal Control Officer or a regular law enforcement officer.

(c) — Animals belonging to nonresidents who do not keep said animals within the corporate limits of the city for 30 consecutive days shall be exempt from this section, provided, however, that all other provisions of this division be complied with.

(d) — The annual license fee shall be set by resolution for each neutered or spayed dog or cat. The annual license fee shall be set by resolution for each unneutered or unspayed dog or cat. No fee shall be charged for the licensure of qualified service animals who are trained to lead partially or totally blind persons, aid hearing impaired persons or assist mobility impaired persons. A fee shall be charged for each dog or cat that has not been spayed or neutered, unless the owner presents a signed statement from a licensed veterinarian stating that spaying or neutering would be a surgical risk for the animal, due to the animal's age or condition.

(e) — Within five business days upon change of ownership of any dog or cat, the new owner shall apply for a new license with their personal identifying information.

Disposal facilities and methodology shall minimize vermin infestation, odors and disease.
- iii. Areas where animals will be spending time shall be maintained to minimize the animal's exposure to fleas, ticks, flies, mosquitoes, ants, wasps, bees, or other insects that could potentially harm the animal or cause the animal discomfort.

3) Shelter and Shade.

- i. Animals that are not allowed free access to go inside a building must be provided with adequate shelter and shade. A structure that provides adequate shelter may not provide adequate shade: for example, a doghouse that protects the dog from wind and rain may be too hot inside when exposed to direct sunlight during the warmer months, so shade must also be provided.
 - (a) Outside housing for animals shall protect animals from any extreme weather conditions that may be detrimental to the health or comfort of the animals.
 - (b) Shelter for an animal must be waterproof, structurally sound, and have no protrusions that could injure animals.
 - (c) Feces and urine shall be removed from shelters as necessary to prevent animals from becoming soiled and to prevent odors, but under no circumstances less than twice each day.
 - (d) Suitable drainage must be provided in all areas where animals are kept and there can be no standing water.

4) Space.

- i. Animals must be provided with adequate space to prevent overcrowding, allow animals to maintain normal exercise levels required by the species, size and temperament of the animal, and allow animals to walk, sit and lay down using normal motions and with their tail and limbs outstretched.
 - (a) Minimum space required for cats. Indoor Requirements.
 - a. Cats shall have a minimum of four (4) square feet of flat floor space and twenty-two (22) inches of vertical space.
 - b. Where there is more than one cat in an enclosure, additional floor and vertical space and resting perches are require. This does not include a cat with kittens.
 - (b) Minimum space required for cats. Outdoor Requirements.
 - a. Cats shall have a minimum of four (4) square feet of flat floor space and six (6) feet of vertical space.
 - b. Where there is more than one cat in an enclosure, additional floor and vertical space and resting perches are require. This does not include a cat with kittens.
 - (c) Minimum space required for dogs. Indoor Requirements.
 - a. Dogs weighing less than thirty (30) pounds shall have at least eight (8) square feet of flat floor space and two (2) feet of vertical space per dog.
 - b. Dogs weighing between thirty (30) and sixty-five (65) pounds shall have twelve (12) square feet of flat floor space and three (3) feet of vertical space per dog.
 - c. Dogs weighing more than sixty-five (65) pounds shall have twenty-four (24) square feet of flat floor space and three (3) feet of vertical space per dog.
 - (d) Minimum space required for dogs. Outdoor Requirements.
 - a. Dogs weighing less than thirty (30) pounds shall have at least eight (8) square feet of flat floor space and six (6) feet of vertical space per dog.
 - b. Dogs weighing between thirty (30) and sixty-five (65) pounds shall have twelve (12) square feet of flat floor space and six (6) feet of vertical space per dog.
 - c. Dogs weighing more than sixty-five (65) pounds shall have twenty-four (24) square feet of flat floor space and six (6) feet of vertical space per dog.
 - (e) Minimum space required for birds.
 - a. Birds must have enough room to spread their wings to their full width.

- b. Birds must have at least two perches of different circumferences available to them.
 - (f) Any other animals not specifically listed should be provided with adequate space to prevent overcrowding, allow animals to maintain normal exercise levels required by the species, size and temperament of the animal, and allow animals to walk, sit and lay down using normal motions and with their tail and limbs outstretched.
 - 5) Medical and veterinary care.
 - i. Animals shall be provided with basic medical care in accordance with ~~section 1-10~~ this Chapter as described by the definition of Basic Medical Care.
 - ii. Animals shall be provided Emergency Medical Care in accordance with this Chapter as described by the definition of Emergency Medical Care.
 - iii. No animal should ever be allowed to suffer due to a lack of basic medical care, injury or illness.
 - 6) Animals shall be groomed in accordance with this Chapter as described by the definition of Basic Grooming as applicable to the species. Basic Grooming is necessary to maintain the eyes, ears, beaks, hooves, feet, hair and skin of an animal in healthy condition. Basic Grooming includes making sure that the toenails or hooves are not so long as to cause the animal to not move normally or to cause pain to the animal. Basic Grooming also includes providing the animal whatever it needs for self-grooming. No animal shall be allowed to have a coat that is matted to the point that it becomes so heavy as to cause skin irritation or trap fecal matter. The animal shall not be kept so dirty as to provide a home for insects. No animal shall be allowed to have foreign objects imbedded in its skin, fur or hair other than the Microchip.

SEC. 3-111. UNCARED FOR ANIMALS.

- A. Whenever an Animal Control Officer finds that any animal is or will be without proper care because of injury, illness, and/or incarceration or as a result of the absence of the owner or person responsible for the care of such animal the Animal Control Officer may apply for a warrant with a court charged with enforcement of this Chapter to enter onto the property or premises where said animal is located and take up such animal for protective care; and in the event of sickness or injury of the animal, upon the instruction of a licensed veterinarian, the Animal Control Officer may take such action as called for to prevent undue pain and suffering, including immediate destruction of the animal.

- B. It is unlawful for any person to desert deliberately and/or to relinquish the supervision or care of any animal regardless of age or condition on one's premises or on property other than one's own without permission within the City of Truth or Consequences.

SEC. 3-112. INJURY TO ANIMAL BY MOTORIST.

- A. Every operator of a motor or other self-propelled vehicle upon the streets and ways of the City shall immediately, upon injuring, striking, maiming, or running down any Domestic Animal or Livestock, give such aid as is reasonably able to be rendered. In the absence of the owner, he/she shall immediately notify the Police, furnishing sufficient facts relative to such injury. It is the duty of such operator to remain at or near the scene until such time as the appropriate authorities arrive and, upon the arrival of such person, such operator shall immediately identify themselves to the appropriate authorities. Alternatively, in the absence of the owner, a person may give aid by taking the Domestic Animal or Livestock to a veterinary hospital or the Animal Shelter and notifying the Police.
- B. Such animal may be deemed an uncared-for animal within the meaning of Section 3-111 above.
- C. Emergency vehicles in the course of emergency duty are excluded from this provision with the exception of reporting the incident.

SEC. 3-113. ANIMALS IN VEHICLES.

- A. It shall be unlawful for any person to intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly leave or confine any animal in a closed vehicle for any period of time without adequate ventilation in a way that puts it in a life-threatening or extreme health-threatening situation due to prolonged heat or cold.
- B. An animal left in a vehicle without the interior of the vehicle being air conditioned when the interior temperature of the vehicle is over ninety degrees Fahrenheit (90°F) shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this chapter.
- C. Animals being transported in the bed of a pickup truck must be protected from extreme temperatures and provided with a nonmetal surface to sit or stand on.
- 1) No animal shall be left in the bed of a pickup truck whether in a crate or not when the weather is such that the animal will be exposed to extreme heat, cold, rain or snow.
- D. If an Animal Control Officer or Police Officer determines that an animal in a vehicle is in immediate danger, the Animal Control Officer or Police Officer may enter the vehicle by whatever means necessary, without being liable to the owner of the vehicle for any damages, and seize the animal. The animal's owner shall be responsible for all expenses related to the removal of the animal, emergency veterinary treatment and impoundment. If the Animal Control Officer or Police Officer cannot determine who confined the animal, the registered owner of the vehicle may be cited.

- E. Animals being transported in vehicles shall be restrained in accordance with Section 3-70.

SEC. 3-114. KEEPING OF DISEASED OR PAINFULLY CRIPPLED ANIMALS.

It is unlawful for any person to have, keep, or harbor any animal which is afflicted with any incurable, or infectious disease or is in any painfully crippling condition, except as hereinafter provided. The Animal Control Officer may impound such diseased or painfully crippled animal in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter. All such animals impounded may be destroyed humanely as soon thereafter as is practicable. In the case of destruction of such animal, the Animal Control Officer shall be required to give any of the aforesaid notices provided in this Ordinance. This Section shall not be construed to include animals receiving veterinary care.

The Animal Shelter of the City of Truth or Consequences shall be kept open to the general public for the transaction of business during the hours set by the City Manager.

(Ord. No. 725, 2-9-22)

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

SEC. 3-9. SAFEKEEPING OF ANIMALS BY THE ANIMAL SHELTER.

- A. A Law Enforcement Officer, Animal Control Officer, or animal owner or person designated by an animal owner, may require a Domestic Animal to be placed in the care and custody of the Animal Shelter to ensure that the Domestic Animal is properly cared for. In these situations, the safekeep of the Domestic Animal at the expense of the owner shall only occur for a period of:
 - 1) Not more than ten (10) calendar days for a person on a Medical Hold. After ten (10) calendar days the Domestic Animal may become property of the Animal Shelter and a boarding fee established by resolution may be applied.
 - 2) Not more than ten (10) calendar days for a person on an Incarceration Hold. After ten (10) calendar days the Domestic Animal may become property of the Animal Shelter and a boarding fee established by resolution may be applied.
- B. The owner shall be responsible for contacting a designated person or organization to pick up the Domestic Animal from the Animal Shelter and the owner shall contact the Animal Shelter and provide authorization for such person or organization to take custody of the Domestic Animal to the Animal Shelter.
- C. After the safekeep period has expired, the animal is no longer classified as a safekeep the Domestic Animal may be considered abandoned and become property of the Animal Shelter unless the owner or designated party notifies the Animal Shelter of a date and time the Domestic Animal will be picked up, not to exceed an additional 72 hours at the owner's expense. No Domestic Animal shall be released from the Animal Shelter until all fees are paid in full. Fees may be waived or reduced by the City Manager or Designee of the City Manager. Owners who knowingly abandon or fail to arrange for pickup of their Domestic Animal at the Animal Shelter may be prosecuted under other sections within the Municipal Code.

(Ord. No. 725, 2-9-22)

SEC. 3-10. SEIZURE OF ANIMALS NOTICE.

- A. An Animal Control Officer, or designee who reasonably believes that the life or health of an animal to include Livestock is endangered due to cruel treatment may apply to a court of proper jurisdiction in the county where the animal is located for a warrant to seize the animal.
- B. If the court finds probable cause that the animal is being cruelly treated, the court shall issue a warrant for the seizure of the animal. The court shall also schedule a hearing on the matter as expeditiously as possible within ten business days unless good cause is demonstrated by the city for a later time and such extension is approved by a judge with proper jurisdiction to enforce this Chapter.
- C. Written notice regarding the time and location of the hearing shall be provided to the owner of the seized animal. The court may order publication of a notice of the hearing in a newspaper closest to the location of the seizure.

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

- D. If the owner of the animal cannot be determined or cannot be located, a written notice regarding the circumstances of the seizure shall be conspicuously posted where the animal is seized at the time the seizure occurs.
- E. At the option and expense of the owner, the seized animal may be examined by a veterinarian of the owner's choice if approved by a judge with proper jurisdiction to enforce this Chapter.
- F. If the animal is a type of Livestock, seizure shall be pursuant to Chapter 77, Article 18 NMSA 1978.

State law reference(s) – Seizure of Animals; Notice, NMSA, § 30-18-1.1.

SEC. 3-11. DISPOSITION OF SEIZED ANIMALS.

- A. If the court finds that a seized animal is not being cruelly treated and that the animal's owner is able to provide for the animal adequately, the court may order the return of the animal to its owner.
- B. If the court finds that a seized animal is being cruelly treated or that the animal's owner is unable to provide for the animal adequately, the court may order the animal be relinquished to the Animal Shelter or other facility.
- C. An animal control agency operated by the municipality, or an Animal Shelter or other animal welfare organization designated by an animal control agency or an Animal Shelter, in the custody of which an animal that has been cruelly treated has been placed may petition the court to request that the animal's owner may be ordered to post security with the court to indemnify the costs incurred to care and provide for the seized animal pending the disposition of any criminal charges of committing cruelty to animals pending against the animal's owner.
- D. The court shall determine the amount of security while taking into consideration all of the circumstances of the case including the owner's ability to pay and may conduct periodic reviews of its order. If the posting of security is ordered, the animal control agency, Animal Shelter or animal welfare organization may, with permission of the court, draw from the security to indemnify the costs incurred to care and provide for the seized animal pending disposition of the criminal charges.
- E. If the owner of the animal does not post security within 13 days after the issuance of the order, or if, after reasonable and diligent attempts the owner cannot be located, the animal may be deemed abandoned and relinquished to the animal control agency, Animal Shelter or animal welfare organization for adoption, transfer out or humane destruction.
- F. Nothing in this section shall prohibit an owner from voluntarily relinquishing an animal to an animal control agency or shelter in lieu of posting security. A voluntary relinquishment shall not preclude further prosecution of any criminal charges alleging that the owner has committed cruelty to animals.

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

- G. As used in this section, "Livestock" means any of the large or small Livestock, including, but not limited to horses, cattle, mules, donkeys, burros, swine, goats, sheep, and fowl, including, but not limited to, chickens, guinea hens, ducks, turkeys, geese, quail, or pigeons or any other Domestic Animals typically used in the production of food, fiber, or other products or activities defined by the city manager as agricultural.

SEC. 3-70. RESTRAINT OF ANIMALS.

- A. A person owning or having charge, custody, or care over a Domestic Animal or Livestock shall keep the animal under humane physical restraint at all times.
- B. A person owning or having care, custody, or control over an animal on his or her premises shall restrain the animal either by a secure enclosure, secure fence, secure facility or by immediate control.
 - 1) All pens, kennels, stalls, corrals, or other enclosures used to restrain an animal shall be continuously maintained with preservatives, fasteners, and other materials to prevent deterioration and animal escape. Substantial and acceptable locking or latching devices shall be installed on all gates and doors to animal enclosures in such a manner as to be inaccessible to animals and small children in order to prevent animal escape and unauthorized entry.
 - 2) A person owning or having care, custody, or control over a Domestic Animal or Livestock on his or her premises may use a tether as a means of restraint only if:
 - i. The tethered animal has access to adequate food, water, shade and shelter.
 - ii. A tether used to restrain a dog shall be at least 12 feet in length. Such tether shall not enable the animal to reach beyond the owner's property.
 - iii. A tether used to restrain an animal shall be affixed to a properly fitting collar or harness worn by the animal. A person shall not wrap a chain or tether directly around the neck or other body part of the animal.
 - iv. A tether used to restrain an animal shall be fastened so that the animal may sit, walk, and lie down using natural motions. Such tether shall be unobstructed by objects that may cause the tether or animal to become entangled, strangled or denied access to adequate necessities.
 - 3) Voice commands are not an acceptable form of restraint.
 - 4) Electronic Leashes are not an acceptable form of restraint.
 - 5) Invisible fences are not an acceptable form of restraint.
 - 6) Crates are prohibited as a means of restraint while an animal is outdoors and on the premises of an owner or custodian.

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

- C. A person owning or having care, custody, or control over a Domestic Animal or Livestock off of his or her premises shall keep the animal under immediate control.
- 1) While restrained off premises under the immediate control of the owner or responsible party, the animal must be on a leash that shall enable the handler to maintain control of the animal. The leash shall not exceed eight (8) feet in length while the animal is in and around the inhabitants of the city.
 - 2) A person shall not carry an animal in or upon any vehicle in a cruel, inhumane, or unsafe manner or in any manner that will allow their escape from the vehicle when it is parked or in motion. Animals carried in the open flatbed vehicle shall be crated or restrained upon a non-slick surface and in a manner that prevents the animal from falling out of the vehicle. At no time is an animal allowed to sit or stand in the driver's lap while the vehicle is being operated on any public roadway.
 - i. If an animal is restrained in a crate or other enclosure while in a vehicle, the crate or enclosure shall be securely fastened so that the crate or enclosure cannot slide, turn over or fall out.
 - 3) A person in charge of an amphibian or reptile away from the owner's premises shall keep the animal secured within a closed container that will not expose people unexpectedly to the animal.
 - 4) Voice commands are not an acceptable form of restraint.
 - 5) Electronic Leashes are not an acceptable form of restraint.
- D. A person owning or having care, custody, or control over a Domestic Animal or Livestock shall not detain or restrain an animal upon another person's private property without having permission from the resident or owner of such property.
- 1) If the resident or owner does not permit the animal being detained or restrained upon such property, the animal may be taken up and impounded by the Animal Control Officer at the request of the resident or owner.
 - 2) If the owner of a rented or leased property does not approve of an animal being restrained or detained by the resident on such property, the dispute may be regarded by the Animal Control Officer as a private matter.
- E. An owner, manager, agent, or governing board of any multiple dwelling units, including mobile home parks and gated communities, may permit or authorize any animal to be unrestrained upon the common areas of the multiple dwelling units, except upon such areas and within such enclosures specifically designated for such activity, provided the animal is restrained within the bounds of the park or community by a secure fence.
- F. Exceptions:
- 1) A working dog that is under the control and supervision of the owner or handler performing such acts as herding on private property, search and rescue, or police work shall not be considered as unrestrained while performing or being trained for such duties.

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

- 2) Community Cats that have been vaccinated and have an ear-tip and Community Cat Caregivers working or acting under a Trap-Neuter-Return initiative.

SEC. 3-73. FEMALE DOGS OR CATS IN ESTRUS TO BE CONFINED.

It shall be unlawful for any owner/responsible party to fail to securely confine any un-spayed Companion Animal in the state of estrus (heat), in a house, building or proper enclosure, in such a manner that such animal cannot come in contact with another animal except for planned breeding, and such that the Companion Animal does not create a nuisance by attracting other animals. When outside on the property of the owner, for metabolic waste elimination, the animal must be physically restrained with a hand-held leash. Owners/responsible party who do not comply may be ordered to remove the animals in estrus (heat) to a boarding kennel, veterinary hospital or Animal Shelter. All expenses incurred as a result of the confinement shall be paid by the owner/responsible party of the animal. Failure to comply with the removal order shall be a violation of this Section and the animal shall then be impounded as prescribed in this Chapter.

- B. Each violation committed under this section shall be considered a separate offense.

SEC. 3-91. ANIMALS DISTURBING THE PEACE.

- A. For the purposes of this Section, persistent means noise created by a Domestic Animal, Exotic Animal or Livestock that is continuously heard for a period of ten (10) minutes or more or intermittently heard over a period of one (1) hour or more.
- B. For the purposes of this Section, intermittent or intermittently means noise created by a Domestic Animal, Exotic Animal or Livestock that starts and stops at irregular intervals.
- C. For the purposes of this Section, continuous or continuously means noise created by a Domestic Animal, Exotic Animal or Livestock that is constant and does not stop for a period of ten (10) minutes or more.

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

- D. It is unlawful for a person owning or having the care, custody or control of a Domestic Animal, Exotic Animal or Livestock to permit that animal to howl, bark or create noise common to its species which disturbs the comfort and repose of any person of ordinary sensibilities in the vicinity. Persistent, continuous or loud intermittent noise between the hours of ten o'clock (10:00) P.M. and six o'clock (6:00) A.M. which can be heard more than fifty feet (50') from the source of the noise shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this section.
- E. It is unlawful for a person owning or having the care, custody or control of a Domestic Animal, Exotic Animal or Livestock to keep or maintain on his premises any animal in such an unclean or unsanitary manner as to disturb others by noxious or offensive odors, or otherwise endanger the health, safety, and welfare of the inhabitants of the City.
- F. A person owning, or having the care, custody or control of any Domestic Animal, Exotic Animal or Livestock may be charged with a violation of this section when either an Animal Control Officer or Police Officer has received, from at least two unrelated adult witnesses from different residences, or from one adult witness with recorded video showing the alleged violation, a sworn affidavit attesting to the committing of a nuisance pursuant to this Section, or the Animal Control Officer or Police Officer has witnessed the commission of such nuisance.
 - 1) Affidavits attesting to the violation must come from residents within a 500-foot radius of the property where the violation occurred.
- G. This Section shall not apply to properly licensed and permitted Animal Shelter's.

(Ord. No. 725, 2-9-22)

Cross reference(s) - Offenses Relating to Public Order and Safety, § 8-31 et seq.

SEC. 3-92. PUBLIC NUISANCE.

- A. It is unlawful for a person owning or having the care, custody or control of any animal to permit, either willfully or through failure to exercise due care or control, any such animal to commit any nuisance upon a sidewalk, or in a public park; or upon the floor or wall or any common wall or any common hall in any multiple dwelling, entryway, stairway, or wall immediately abutting on a public sidewalk; or upon the floor or wall of any theater, shop, store, office building, or other building used in common by the public; or upon any private property other than that of the animal owner.
- B. A person owning or having care, custody, or control over an animal shall prevent the animal from causing damage or being a nuisance to the person or property of another.
- C. A person owning or having care, custody, or control over a pet such as a dog or cat shall dispose of the waste from the animal in a watertight and fly tight receptacle, which shall be emptied frequently and in such a manner so as to prevent a nuisance or health hazard by noxious or offensive odors.

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

- D. A person owning or having care, custody, or control over an animal shall not permit the animal to defecate on public property or the property of another unless such animal waste is immediately removed and properly disposed of.
- E. A person owning, or having the care, custody or control of any animal may be charged with a violation of this section when either an Animal Control Officer or Police Officer has received, from at least two unrelated adult witnesses from different residences, or from one adult witness with recorded video showing the alleged violation, a sworn affidavit attesting to the committing of a nuisance pursuant to this Section, or the Animal Control Officer or Police Officer has witnessed the commission of such nuisance.
 - 1) Affidavits attesting to the violation must come from residents within a 500-foot radius of the property where the violation occurred.
 - 2) Complainants must be willing to testify of violations in a court of proper jurisdiction.
- F. A community cat that disturbs the peace by habitually or repeatedly destroying, desecrating, or soiling public or private property may constitute a public nuisance.
 - 1) Animal Control shall investigate an alleged violation of this section upon the receipt of two (2) sworn complaints in a form provided by Animal Control signed by two (2) unrelated City residents living in separate dwellings with 500 feet of the alleged violation. The affidavit shall specify the address or location of the alleged violation, the nature, time and date(s) of the act, the name and address of the owner or custodian, if known, and a description of the cat, if known.
 - 2) If, upon investigation, Animal Control, determines the complainant(s) have taken reasonable abatement measures to resolve or mitigate the nuisance behavior of the cat, Animal Services may request the caregiver, if any, assist in resolving the nuisance or may remove the community cat causing the nuisance.
 - 3) A Community Cat Caregiver may be cited for failing to take reasonable abatement measures to resolve or mitigate any nuisance behavior created by a community cat in which they provide care.

SEC. 3-93. UNLAWFUL USE OF COMPANION ANIMAL LICENSE TAG.

It is unlawful for any person to remove any Companion Animal License Tag from animal and attach it to another animal. It shall be unlawful for any person to manufacture, cause to be manufactured, or to have in his/her possession or under his/her control a stolen, counterfeit, or forged Companion Animal License Tag, rabies vaccination certificate, or other form of licensing as required under this Chapter.

(Ord. No. 725, 2-9-22)

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

SEC. 3-94. VICIOUS ANIMALS.

It is unlawful for any person to keep or harbor a known vicious animal in the City. Any attack by a vicious animal or any animal displaying traits of a vicious animal may be repelled by the use of reasonable force. After a judicial determination that an animal is vicious, the court having jurisdiction over the enforcement of this Chapter, upon hearing of such complaint, may, in addition to any fine or imprisonment which may be imposed for violation hereof, order the Animal Control Officer to have such animal destroyed as set forth in Section 3-51 of this Chapter.

State law reference(s) – Vicious Animals, NMSA, § 77-1-10.

SEC. 3-95. SALE OF ANIMALS.

- A. No person shall display, sell, or offer for sale, barter, give away, or otherwise dispose of any animal upon any street, sidewalk, public park or private business, unless said private business is properly licensed or such person is acting on behalf of the Truth or Consequences Animal Shelter or other animal welfare non-profit during an adoption event.
- B. No person shall sell, offer for sale, barter, or give away any baby rabbits under four weeks of age. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the raising of rabbits and fowl by a private individual for his personal use and consumption, provided that he shall maintain proper brooders and other facilities for the care and containment of such animals while they are in his possession.
- C. No person shall offer as a premium prize, award, novelty, or incentive to purchase merchandise any live animal.
- D. A person shall not sell, offer for sale, transfer, or adopt ferret under eight weeks of age, or a guinea pig, hamster, or rabbit under four weeks of age. However, in no event shall an animal be sold, transferred or adopted until it is fully weaned and capable of eating on its own to sufficiently maintain proper body condition as determined by the breed and species of the animal. Nothing herein shall prohibit the transfer of animals between Animal Shelters and animal rescue organizations or prohibit the sale, transfer, or adoption of an un-weaned animal if accompanied by a nursing female.
- E. All requirements as set by Section 3-147 shall be met when selling, gifting or other conveyance of puppies and kittens that are prior to eight weeks of age.
- F. No person shall offer for sale, sell, barter, or give away turtles, except in conformance with appropriate federal regulations.

(Ord. No. 725, 2-9-22)

State law reference(s) – Sale, Purchase, Trade and Possession of Certain Animals Regulated, NMSA, § 77-18-1.

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

SEC. 3-96. FALSE REPORTING.

- A. It is unlawful for any person to make a false report to a Police Officer or an Animal Control Officer regarding any animal in danger or stray or regarding any supposed violation of this Chapter.
- B. It is unlawful for any person to make a false affidavit, or knowingly swear or affirm falsely to a document, matter or thing required to be sworn or affirmed to by the terms of this Chapter.

SECS. 3-97 – 3-107. RESERVED.

ARTICLE VII. CRUELTY TO ANIMALS PROHIBITED.

SEC. 3-108. PHYSICAL ABUSE.

- A. It is unlawful for any person to willfully or maliciously kill, beat, sexually abuse, maim, poison, disfigure, burn, or scald any animal, or to attempt to kill or poison any animal, except that reasonable efforts may be employed only to drive off vicious or trespassing animals. When a Law Enforcement Officer or an Animal Control Officer has probable cause to believe that an animal has been cruelly treated, the officer may impound the animal for its protection pending appropriate court proceedings.
- B. Exceptions
 - 1) Humane Euthanasia performed by a Licensed Veterinarian, a Euthanasia Qualified Employee of the City of Truth or Consequences or a Euthanasia Authorized employee of the City of Truth or Consequences Animal Shelter.
 - 2) Killing a bird if such bird is Poultry owned by that Person and will be used for food;
 - 3) Killing a rabbit if such rabbit is owned by that Person and will be used for food;
 - 4) Killing mice or rats that are not a Domestic Animal or otherwise claimed as a pet by any Person;
 - 5) A Person may use poison to kill mice and rats, but only within a Person's own enclosed structures.
 - 6) Except when applied by a licensed exterminator, no poison may be used outside, even on a Person's own property, or in any way in which a poisoned animal, including mice and rats, can consequently poison other Animals.
 - 7) Generally accepted methods of animal training that do not cause undue physical and emotional suffering, including the training of Livestock, Companion Animals, Guard Dogs, hunting dogs, police dogs and Service Animals shall not constitute cruelty.

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

SEC. 3-109. WORK CRUELTY.

It is unlawful for any person to drive or work any animal cruelly. When a Law Enforcement Officer or an Animal Control Officer has probable cause to believe that an animal has been cruelly treated, the officer may impound the animal for its protection pending appropriate court proceedings.

State law reference(s) – Cruelty to Animals; Extreme Cruelty to Animals, NMSA, § 30-18-1.

SEC. 3-110. CARE AND MAINTENANCE.

A. It is unlawful for any owner of an animal to fail, refuse, or neglect to provide said animal with proper and adequate necessities and medical care.

1) Food and Water.

- i. Mammals and birds shall be provided with uncontaminated, edible, nutritious food, which is of adequate quantity as to maintain the normal weight and condition of a healthy animal. Additionally, the amount of food administered and feeding times must properly conform to the individual animal's age and condition. Food should be stored in a rodent proof and insect proof container. Open food must be kept in covered, washable containers. Containers where food is stored shall be maintained and kept free of bacteria and contamination from rodents and insects as needed.
- ii. Mammals and birds shall be provided with constant access to a supply of unfrozen potable water in sufficient amount as to maintain good health as required by the species whether the animal is outdoors or indoors.

2) Cleanliness.

- i. The entire premises where an animal is kept shall be kept clean and in good repair in a manner which will protect animals from disease or injury. Feces and urine must be removed at least twice daily from Companion Animal living quarters to prevent odors and possible dangerous or toxic exposure or contamination by fecal material, mold or internal and external parasites that could harm the animal or cause the spread of disease to other animals or humans.
- ii. All areas where animals are kept shall be maintained in a manner such that no animal can accidentally or intentionally come into contact with chemicals or other dangerous substances including, but not limited to, antifreeze that could potentially poison an animal. Food and cleaning supplies cannot be stored together. Provisions shall be made for the timely removal and proper disposal of animal and food waste, soiled bedding, dead animals, and debris. Disposal facilities and methodology shall minimize vermin infestation, odors and disease.
- iii. Areas where animals will be spending time shall be maintained to minimize the animal's exposure to fleas, ticks, flies, mosquitoes, ants,

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

wasps, bees, or other insects that could potentially harm the animal or cause the animal discomfort.

3) Shelter and Shade.

- i. Animals that are not allowed free access to go inside a building must be provided with adequate shelter and shade. A structure that provides adequate shelter may not provide adequate shade: for example, a doghouse that protects the dog from wind and rain may be too hot inside when exposed to direct sunlight during the warmer months, so shade must also be provided.
 - (a) Outside housing for animals shall protect animals from any extreme weather conditions that may be detrimental to the health or comfort of the animals.
 - (b) Shelter for an animal must be waterproof, structurally sound, and have no protrusions that could injure animals.
 - (c) Feces and urine shall be removed from shelters as necessary to prevent animals from becoming soiled and to prevent odors, but under no circumstances less than twice each day.
 - (d) Suitable drainage must be provided in all areas where animals are kept and there can be no standing water.

4) Space.

- i. Animals must be provided with adequate space to prevent overcrowding, allow animals to maintain normal exercise levels required by the species, size and temperament of the animal, and allow animals to walk, sit and lay down using normal motions and with their tail and limbs outstretched.
 - (a) Minimum space required for cats. Indoor Requirements.
 - a. Cats shall have a minimum of four (4) square feet of flat floor space and twenty-two (22) inches of vertical space.
 - b. Where there is more than one cat in an enclosure, additional floor and vertical space and resting perches are require. This does not include a cat with kittens.
 - (b) Minimum space required for cats. Outdoor Requirements.
 - a. Cats shall have a minimum of four (4) square feet of flat floor space and six (6) feet of vertical space.
 - b. Where there is more than one cat in an enclosure, additional floor and vertical space and resting perches are require. This does not include a cat with kittens.
 - (c) Minimum space required for dogs. Indoor Requirements.
 - a. Dogs weighing less than thirty (30) pounds shall have at least eight (8) square feet of flat floor space and two (2) feet of vertical space per dog.

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

- b. Dogs weighing between thirty (30) and sixty-five (65) pounds shall have twelve (12) square feet of flat floor space and three (3) feet of vertical space per dog.
 - c. Dogs weighing more than sixty-five (65) pounds shall have twenty-four (24) square feet of flat floor space and three (3) feet of vertical space per dog.
 - (d) Minimum space required for dogs. Outdoor Requirements.
 - a. Dogs weighing less than thirty (30) pounds shall have at least eight (8) square feet of flat floor space and six (6) feet of vertical space per dog.
 - b. Dogs weighing between thirty (30) and sixty-five (65) pounds shall have twelve (12) square feet of flat floor space and six (6) feet of vertical space per dog.
 - c. Dogs weighing more than sixty-five (65) pounds shall have twenty-four (24) square feet of flat floor space and six (6) feet of vertical space per dog.
 - (e) Minimum space required for birds.
 - a. Birds must have enough room to spread their wings to their full width.
 - b. Birds must have at least two perches of different circumferences available to them.
 - (f) Any other animals not specifically listed should be provided with adequate space to prevent overcrowding, allow animals to maintain normal exercise levels required by the species, size and temperament of the animal, and allow animals to walk, sit and lay down using normal motions and with their tail and limbs outstretched.
- 5) Medical and veterinary care.
 - i. Animals shall be provided with basic medical care in accordance with this Chapter as described by the definition of Basic Medical Care.
 - ii. Animals shall be provided Emergency Medical Care in accordance with this Chapter as described by the definition of Emergency Medical Care.
 - iii. No animal should ever be allowed to suffer due to a lack of basic medical care, injury or illness.
- 6) Animals shall be groomed in accordance with this Chapter as described by the definition of Basic Grooming as applicable to the species. Basic Grooming is necessary to maintain the eyes, ears, beaks, hooves, feet, hair and skin of an animal in healthy condition. Basic Grooming includes making sure that the toenails or hooves are not so long as to cause the animal to not move normally or to cause pain to the animal. Basic Grooming also includes providing the animal

SEC. 3-111. UNCARED FOR ANIMALS.

- A. Whenever an Animal Control Officer finds that any animal is or will be without proper care because of injury, illness, and/or incarceration or as a result of the absence of the owner or person responsible for the care of such animal the Animal Control Officer may apply for a warrant with a court charged with enforcement of this Chapter to enter onto the property or premises where said animal is located and take up such animal for protective care; and in the event of sickness or injury of the animal, upon the instruction of a licensed veterinarian, the Animal Control Officer may take such action as called for to prevent undue pain and suffering, including immediate destruction of the animal.
- B. It is unlawful for any person to desert deliberately and/or to relinquish the supervision or care of any animal regardless of age or condition on one's premises or on property other than one's own without permission within the City of Truth or Consequences.

SEC. 3-112. INJURY TO ANIMAL BY MOTORIST.

- A. Every operator of a motor or other self-propelled vehicle upon the streets and ways of the City shall immediately, upon injuring, striking, maiming, or running down any Domestic Animal or Livestock, give such aid as is reasonably able to be rendered. In the absence of the owner, he/she shall immediately notify the Police, furnishing sufficient facts relative to such injury. It is the duty of such operator to remain at or near the scene until such time as the appropriate authorities arrive and, upon the arrival of such person, such operator shall immediately identify themselves to the appropriate authorities. Alternatively, in the absence of the owner, a person may give aid by taking the Domestic Animal or Livestock to a veterinary hospital or the Animal Shelter and notifying the Police.
- B. Such animal may be deemed an uncared-for animal within the meaning of Section 3-111 above.
- C. Emergency vehicles in the course of emergency duty are excluded from this provision with the exception of reporting the incident.

SEC. 3-113. ANIMALS IN VEHICLES.

- A. It shall be unlawful for any person to intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly leave or confine any animal in a closed vehicle for any period of time without adequate ventilation in a way that puts it in a life-threatening or extreme health-threatening situation due to prolonged heat or cold.

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

- B. An animal left in a vehicle without the interior of the vehicle being air conditioned when the interior temperature of the vehicle is over ninety degrees Fahrenheit (90°F) shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this chapter.
- C. Animals being transported in the bed of a pickup truck must be protected from extreme temperatures and provided with a nonmetal surface to sit or stand on.
 - 1) No animal shall be left in the bed of a pickup truck whether in a crate or not when the weather is such that the animal will be exposed to extreme heat, cold, rain or snow.
- D. If an Animal Control Officer or Police Officer determines that an animal in a vehicle is in immediate danger, the Animal Control Officer or Police Officer may enter the vehicle by whatever means necessary, without being liable to the owner of the vehicle for any damages, and seize the animal. The animal's owner shall be responsible for all expenses related to the removal of the animal, emergency veterinary treatment and impoundment. If the Animal Control Officer or Police Officer cannot determine who confined the animal, the registered owner of the vehicle may be cited.
- E. Animals being transported in vehicles shall be restrained in accordance with Section 3-70.

SEC. 3-114. KEEPING OF DISEASED OR PAINFULLY CRIPPLED ANIMALS.

It is unlawful for any person to have, keep, or harbor any animal which is afflicted with any incurable, or infectious disease or is in any painfully crippling condition, except as hereinafter provided. The Animal Control Officer may impound such diseased or painfully crippled animal in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter. All such animals impounded may be destroyed humanely as soon thereafter as is practicable. In the case of destruction of such animal, the Animal Control Officer shall be required to give any of the aforesaid notices provided in this Ordinance. This Section shall not be construed to include animals receiving veterinary care.

State law reference(s) – Cruelty to Animals; Extreme Cruelty to Animals, NMSA, § 30-18-1.

SEC. 3-115. ANIMAL FIGHTS.

It is unlawful for any person to promote, stage, hold, manage, conduct, carry on, or attend any game, exhibition or contest in which one or more animals are engaged for the purpose or injuring, killing, maiming, or destroying themselves or any other animal. This includes any animal used as a "bait animal" as defined in the definitions of this Chapter.

State law reference(s) – Cruelty to Animals; Extreme Cruelty to Animals, NMSA, § 30-18-1, Dog Fighting and Cockfighting, NMSA, § 30-18-9.

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

SEC. 3-116. FOWL.

It is unlawful for any person to confine any wild or domestic fowl or birds unless provisions are made by each person for the proper feeding and the furnishing of water to such fowl or birds at intervals not longer than twelve (12) hours. No person shall impound any wild or domestic fowl or birds in a crate, box or other enclosure, which does not permit each fowl or bird impounded therein to stand in a naturally erect position.

SEC. 3-117. MOLESTING OR TORMENTING ANIMALS.

It is unlawful for any person to torment, tease, annoy, disturb or molest any animal, by any means including but not limited to, throwing rocks, yelling, or giving chase in any manner, which is on the property of its owner, or under the control of its owner.

3-118. SONGBIRDS.

It is unlawful for any person to willfully kill any songbird, or to molest or rob the nest of such bird.

State law reference(s) – Songbirds; Trapping, Killing or Injuring Prohibited, NMSA, § 17-2-13.

SEC. 3-119. DRAGGING AND HOBBLING ANIMALS.

A person shall not hobble an animal, or tether or attach any animal to any object that can be dragged or moved by the animal. Such an animal, if not otherwise restrained by a secure tether or enclosure, shall be considered unrestrained. This shall not apply to Livestock animals being properly used for work purposes using commonly accepted methods.

SEC. 3-120. SCOPE OF SECTION; VIOLATIONS.

- A. It is expressly provided that Section 3-108 through Section 3-119 apply equally to Domestic Livestock, Exotic Animals, and Wild Animals in addition to dogs and cats.
- B. Violations of Section 3-108 through Section 3-119 are punishable by fines and/or imprisonment as set forth in Section 3-29.

SEC. 3-121. REPEAT OFFENSES.

- A. Three or more violations of any one or any combination of offenses in this Article shall constitute an act of cruelty. A repeat offender shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a minimum fine of $100.00 and not exceeding $500.00 and/or imprisonment for period not exceeding six (6) months.
- B. In cases of repeat offenses under this Article (Article VII), an Animal Control Officer shall have the authority to impound any animal subjected to cruelty, neglect or abandonment. The animal may not be returned to its owner before a hearing in a court of proper jurisdiction if, in the opinion on of the Animal Control Officer, the harm to the animal is severe and likely to recur.
- C. In cases of repeat offenses for animals subjected to cruelty, neglect or abandonment, a judge with proper jurisdiction to enforce this Chapter may have such animal relinquished to the Animal Shelter, thereby extinguishing all property rights of the existing owner,

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

provided the Animal Shelter Staff or an Animal Control Officer serves written notice upon the existing owner, informing him of the intent to have said animal adopted by another owner, and giving the existing owner three (3) business days to 1) declare his intent to maintain ownership of the animal and to object to the adoption, and 2) pay all impoundment, boarding, and veterinary costs, up to the date of the owner's declaration of intent to maintain his ownership of his animal. This intent must be stated in writing, signed by the animal's owner, and delivered to the Animal Shelter keeping the animal. The statement of intent and payment of fees and costs will serve to stop any animal adoption proceedings

ARTICLE VII. DEAD ANIMALS

SEC. 3-130. DISPOSAL.

- A. The owner/responsible party having care, custody or control of an animal carcass shall be responsible for its removal within 24 hours of death if the animal is not to be used for human consumption.
- B. An animal carcass may be disposed of in one of the following ways:
 - 1) Burial of the animal carcass on the owner's land under the following conditions:
 - i. The bottom of the burial pit must be at least three feet above the water table.
 - ii. If possible, choose a site where the soil is heavier and less permeable.
 - iii. Flat areas are best. Avoid areas sloping toward water or arroyos.
 - iv. Ensure the pit is sized to allow soil to cover mortalities to a depth of at least three feet.
 - 2) Cremation by a licensed facility where the remains can be sealed in an acceptable urn for return to the animal owner or disposed of by the facility.
 - i. The cremation of the carcass will be at the expense of the animal owner.
 - 3) The Animal Control Officer may remove any animal carcass from the roadway or other public property. The Animal Control Officer and/or T or C Animal Shelter staff shall make reasonable efforts to notify the animal's owner if known in the event of the animal's death.
 - i. Animal Control Officer may dispose of the animal carcass at the T or C Animal Shelter as authorized after microchip scanning and making reasonable efforts to notify the animal's owner. If an owner is located and request that the Animal Shelter dispose of the carcass, then the owner/responsible party will be responsible for the disposal fee.
 - ii. Animal Control Officer shall turn over any tags or other identification found on an animal carcass to the T or C Animal Shelter.

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

- 4) The Animal Shelter may, but is not obligated to, provide for the removal of an animal carcass from private property at the request of the animal owner or property owner for a fee.
 - i. The fee amount shall be established by resolution; or
 - ii. The fee amount shall be established by most current rate schedule as provided by the current licensed facility, contracted with the City of Truth or Consequences, for cremation services.
 1. This fee schedule is based on the weight of the carcass.

SEC. 3-140. DANGEROUS DOGS.

A dog shall be deemed dangerous if it causes serious injury to a person, Domestic Animal or Livestock.

State law reference(s) – Dangerous Dog, Definitions, NMSA, § 77-1A-2.

SEC. 3-141. SEIZURE OF DANGEROUS DOGS.

- A. If an Animal Control Officer has probable cause to believe that a dog is a dangerous dog and poses an imminent threat to public safety, the Animal Control Officer may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the animal is located for a warrant to seize the animal.
- B. If an Animal Control Officer has probable cause to believe that a dog is a potentially dangerous dog and poses a threat to public safety, the animal authority may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the animal is located for a warrant to seize the animal.
- C. After seizure, the Animal Control Officer will impound the dog pending disposition of the case or until the owner has fulfilled the requirements for a certificate of registration pursuant to the provisions of subsection (e) of this section.
- D. After seizure:
 - 1) The owner may admit that the dog is dangerous or potentially dangerous and comply with the requirements for a certificate of registration pursuant to subsection (e) of this section; or
 - 2) The Animal Control Officer may, within fourteen (14) days after seizure of the dog, bring a petition in a court of competent jurisdiction seeking a determination of whether the dog is dangerous or potentially dangerous. If the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that the dog is dangerous and poses an imminent threat to public safety or potentially dangerous and poses a threat to public safety, the court shall order the owner to comply with the registration and handling requirements for the dog and obtain a certificate of registration within 30 days or have the dog humanely destroyed. If the court does not make the required findings pursuant to this paragraph, the court shall immediately order the release of the dog to the owner.
- E. If the owner does not admit that the dog is dangerous or potentially dangerous and the Animal Control Officer does not bring a petition in court within 14 days of seizure of the dog, the court shall immediately order the release of the dog to its owner.
- F. If the owner admits that the dog is dangerous and transfers ownership of the dog to the Animal Shelter, the Animal Shelter may humanely destroy the dog.

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

- G. A determination that a dog is not dangerous or potentially dangerous shall not prevent the Animal Control Officer from making a subsequent application for seizure based on the dog's subsequent behaviors.

State law reference(s) – Dangerous Dog, Definitions, NMSA, § 77-1A-4.

SEC. 3-142. DANGEROUS AND POTENTIALLY DANGEROUS DOGS - REGISTRATION REQUIRED.

- A. Upon application, the City Clerk's Office shall issue a certificate of registration to the owner of a dangerous or potentially dangerous dog if the owner establishes that:
- 1) The owner is able to keep the dog under control at all times; and
 - 2) A Companion Animal License Certificate, if applicable, has been issued pursuant to the requirements of the City; and
 - 3) The dog has a current rabies vaccination; and
 - 4) The owner has a proper enclosure to the dog; and
 - 5) The owner has paid an annual fee set by resolution to register a dangerous or potentially dangerous dog; and
 - 6) The dog has been spayed or neutered; and
 - 7) The dog has been implanted with a microchip containing owner identification information that is also provided to the animal control authority; and

ARTICLE XII. PERMITTED PREMISES, REGULATIONS, LICENSES AND FEES

SEC. 3-147. GUARD DOGS.

Anyone using or keeping a dog for the sole purpose of guarding a property, and neither as a pet nor for hunting uses, must obtain a Guard Dog Site Permit from the City in addition to all other applicable provisions of this Chapter:

1. A Guard Dog shall not be used to guard residential property.
2. Only one Guard Dog is allowed on a property at any given time.
3. The permit application shall include sufficient information to identify the owner of the commercial property, the name and address of the owner of the Guard Dog, and the location intended to be guarded by the Guard Dog.
4. The permit applicant shall submit the application to the City Clerk's Office and submit to a pre-permit inspection of the premises by an Animal Control Officer so that an accurate physical description of the animal may be obtained.
5. The applicant must provide to the City proof of vaccination of the Guard Dog as set in Section 3-68 of this Chapter.
6. The applicant must provide to the City proof of licensing as set in Section 3-69 of this Chapter and microchipping of the Guard Dog as set in Section 3-74 of this Chapter. Proof of licensing and microchipping must be provided annually during renewal of the permit.
7. The permit applicant shall pay the Guard Dog Site Permit fee before a permit may be obtained. The permit holder shall, thereafter, pay an annual Guard Dog Site Permit fee. The permit application and annual permit fees shall be set by resolution by the City.
8. The permit applicant must submit to an annual inspection of the property by an Animal Control Officer before a permit may be renewed.
9. Prior to obtaining the permit, the permit applicant shall obtain liability insurance in this state providing coverage in each occurrence, subject to a limit, exclusive of interests and costs, of not less than $100,000.00 for damage or bodily injury to or death of a person caused by the Guard Dog.
10. The enclosure surrounding the property protected by a Guard Dog must be secure at all times so as to prevent the dog from running at large, unless the owner complies with Section 3-70.
11. The enclosure surrounding the property must be of sufficient height and strength to contain the Guard Dog within the premises to prevent unauthorized entry and access of animals and people onto the property.
12. A Guard Dog may only be chained in order to supplement any enclosure. A chain shall not be the only form of restraint for a Guard Dog.

CHAPTER 3. ANIMALS

13. If chained, the animal must be located within 10 feet of the entrance of the building or premises to be guarded and chained in such manner as set forth in Section 3-70.
14. The owner of the Guard Dog shall post warning signs prominently on all sides of the premises and on all entryways to the premises, stating that a Guard Dog is on the premises.
 - i. Warning signs should be at least twelve (12) inches long on each side.
 - ii. Warning signs shall state “Guard Dog” and “Guardia” and shall show a picture of an aggressive dog.
 - iii. Signs should not be more than fifty (50) feet apart on all exterior fences or walls surrounding the site and shall be posted at all exterior corners of the site and every entrance to the site.
 - iv. Signs shall be maintained in such a manner to maintain their effectiveness.
15. Vehicles used to transport Guard Dogs shall be secured so the public is protected from injury, shall be constructed or modified to ensure that the Guard Dog is transported in a safe, humane manner and that does not violate Section 3-113, and shall be posted with warning signs on each side of the vehicle.
16. The City may at any time revoke a Guard Dog Site Permit for any and all violations of this Chapter.
17. Nothing in this section shall prohibit an Animal Control Officer from placing a Guard Dog on a quarantine and/or seizing a Guard Dog as set by provisions of this Chapter and/or applicable state laws.
18. An application may be denied if the applicant or animal owner shows a history of noncompliance with sections contained in this chapter as evidenced by two or more convictions of violations during the preceding 12 months. Any past city permits or license revocations may be considered in decision making process of whether to approve or deny a permit under this section.
19. A Guard Dog Site Permit holder shall not apply for a litter permit, Multi-Animal Site Permit or Kennel Permit for the Guard Dog Site. No breeding, boarding or sale of Animals is allowed at a Guard Dog Site.
20. Guard Dog Site Permits shall not be issued to any premises within five-hundred (500) feet of any school zone, daycare, public park or dog park.
